Dear Dr Bigyan Verma,

Outcome of Teaching Centres Committee Application Review

I am delighted to inform you that following the formal review of your application by the University of London Teaching Centres Committee on 25 September 2025, the committee has endorsed the recommendation to award Recognised Teaching Centre Status to IILM Institute for Higher Education.

Institution receiving UoL recognition	Programmes received approval for
IILM Institute for Higher Education  3, Rai School Complex, Institutional Area, Lodhi Road, New Delhi, Delhi-110003 India	BSc in Business Administration (including CertHE)

We will shortly send you a 30-minute meeting invite to formally introduce you to your Senior Business Support Services Manager.

The Quality Assurance Team will be in touch to gather the required information needed to finalise the Teaching Centre Recognition Framework agreement. Following this your Designated Senior Business Support Manager will organise your induction as a Recognised Teaching Centre, as well as discuss the opportunity for a signing ceremony here in London. A certificate of recognition will be emailed to your institution confirming the institution's status.

As a Recognised Teaching Centre, you are part of an exclusive group of institutions around the world that enjoy a close relationship with the University of London. This collaboration involves both of our organisations working closely together in order to benefit our students by enriching their learning experience.

We look forward to continuing an exciting and positive relationship over the coming years.

Yours sincerely,

Peter O'Hearn
